

Catholic Schools Week 2010

January 31-February 5

Celebrating Our Catholic Education

It's finally here, the week that students look forward to all year, Catholic Schools Week, and it's packed with wonderful ways to celebrate the gift of our school!

All School Service Project

Holy Family Academy is collecting blankets that will be donated to a local agency that blankets the poor in our area. All students and staff are encouraged to bring clean blankets (new and used okay) to place at the feet of Mary all throughout the week.

Daily Catholic School Trivia Contest
